

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Triennial Council?

The Triennial Council is Φ BK's legislative body, which convenes every three years to conduct Society business.

Why am I invited?

Φ BK chapters and associations are required to send delegates as part of their commitment to the Society. As a volunteer, you are eligible to be a delegate.

What do delegates do?

Delegates help charter new Φ BK chapters, elect leadership for the following triennium, discuss policies affecting the Society, and engage with timely liberal arts & sciences content.
